Chrome 37 is out, but Tizen only supports chrome version 34. Is there any way I can use another browser in a new version of Tizen? A: I checked the site which lists the supported browsers for Tizen. The browsers that are listed there are: Firefox 35 SeaMonkey 2.34.6 Windows Internet Explorer 8 Internet Explorer 11 Chrome 34 Opera 31 Safari 5.1.7 Android Browser 3.7.4 So no, you cannot (and probably cannot even install) a different browser on your device. But Firefox and SeaMonkey are perfectly supported on Tizen devices. Even "Chrome" browsers are supported, but of course they will be limited by the hardware capabilities of your device. The list of supported browsers and their limitations can be seen here. Russia's State Duma has approved a bill that will ban so-called "gay propaganda" and gay "propaganda" among minors. According to local press, the bill received the first reading in the State Duma, the upper house of Russia's parliament, on Wednesday, and can now move forward to further readings. Russia's lower house, the State Duma, approved a controversial ban on "gay propaganda" to its anti-LGBTI 'propaganda' bill earlier this month. The bill was initially aimed at blocking LGBTI content on the internet, but it was amended to ban "homosexual propaganda" among minors. A Kremlin-backed senator, Yelena Mizulina, claimed in a report that "homosexual propaganda" was more dangerous than the Holocaust. Following the passage of the ban, the UN's human rights body, the Human Rights Council, warned the legislation was discriminatory and could lead to discrimination and violence against LGBTI people. The law's chief proponent, MP Andrei Klshas, previously failed to present the bill and asked for more time. The Russian Duma returned the bill to
