Mayakkam Enna is the story of an aspiring wildlife Photographer Karthik, who is forced to .[Lymphotropic tyrosine-kinase (LTK) and its natural substrate, p210c-b-ras protein product]. In this paper, we introduced new data concerning the effect of an LTK, called kinase R, on its natural substrate, p210c-b-ras protein product. This tyrosine-kinase was originally isolated from the murine thymocyte membranes. We made an attempt to search the rat and murine p210c-b-ras protein product as an inhibitor of the tyrosine-kinase R in vitro. We obtained the following data: in vitro incubation of the kinase R with a 10 mM concentration of p210c-b-ras protein product led to the decreasing of activity of the kinase R by 60% compared to the controls.
