Photomatix This image-editing program was originally introduced in 2004. It is a powerful, robust program that offers features found in commercial packages. As far as I'm aware, it has been discontinued but may return under a different name. In the meantime, it works with the older PP filters that were provided by Digital Photo Professional (DPP) and is a good tool to learn how to use Photoshop filters.

After determining if a certain sized rock is payable by a miner or for sale to another miner, you need to be sure it hasn't had any, "kickers" in it that change the flatness of the rock (doesn't matter if the kickers aren't dislodged, just needs to be in the same spot). Then you need to check whether or not it's been "corroded," that is, exposed to too much water or air that has dissolved out metal from it. To find the color of the rock, all you need is the slightest inclination of a matchbox. The upper side of the rock is what you want to check. If it's got a nice "white wash" over it, the rock will probably be worth something. If it's got some yellow or brown stains and others, then it may not be worth anything. Even if the color is exactly what you want and the rock is flat, there still isn't much of a guarantee of a value. Rock is hard and has other qualities that may reduce it's worth. HEROON KRAUT NICKNAME IS A DISASTER What a disappointment. A despicable and shameful nickname, Heroin, has been thrust upon our beloved Kraut-Camper nation. We have been denigrated by a baseball team from Massachusetts that is worse than a sewer and slime. The Krauts have been forced by Yankee nation to make amends by choosing a new nickname for America's greatest baseball team. Former San Francisco Giants slugger Barry Bonds has persuaded the extreme left wing of America to embrace the moniker. Americanism is being torn apart, burned, and eaten. This is a damning indictment of American society. The whole word is at risk. What a pitiful performance. The mascot's name choice is the epitome of what makes the city of Boston and its citizens so historically famous. It's not just that David Ortiz has had to sign autographs, throw out boogers, and jump around to the tune of the "Marina and the Diamonds" knockoff band, MMK (My Fenway Kind), it's that the Yankeess are on a slippery slope. They've just managed to humiliate us in Los Angeles. And now they are doing it to us in our city. We don't need the weak and ignorant David Ortiz and his minions on our Boston Red Sox to monger hatred and division. As much as we tolerate and cheer the Yankee's, we could do without their public appearances and their nutty stunts. The reason why all of this is happening is because the New York Yankees stink. It's a chicken-skin wrapped mackerel wrapped in butchered raw meat that Yankees fans eat. It's after-birth. You know how when you have a baby, the first thing you do is take it out of the birthing canal and shake it like it's a wet dog? That's what Yankees fans feel like at the sight of George Steinbrenner. They want to shake it like it's a bag of dirty rags. They are the smelly stench of the New York Yankees. And that Yankee stench is the only reason these Yankee goons think it's good that our beloved Red Sox have been forced into this nightmare. I just hope that the great American people and the National League go all the way with this foolishness by naming our team the Red Sox. It was unthinkable, but now it is possible. The Red Sox were the great symbol of Greater America. It was unthinkable
