Telestream Wirecast pro 7.1.0. The software is now widespread, available on many computers and is an excellent alternative for those who work in the video editing field.

Telestream Wirecast Pro is a brilliant video cutter, the product offers a simple interface and it is very easy to use. Its power, however, comes with a price, you need to purchase the company's WebCaster software. The application, however, is very good, with many useful features. All-in-one video editor Wirecast Pro can be connected to any USB or FireWire video camera or external storage device, and it will automatically extract all source videos and audio tracks contained in the data. This way, the application can edit your video in real time. To export your work to any of the supported formats, you can easily choose the target file type by opening the file and clicking on the desired format. The editing interface is fully customizable and you can easily personalize the way you work by customizing the interface elements. In addition, the software has the basic features to allow you to edit videos, including length limit, color management, audio formats, audio mixing, audio volume control, video speed, video resolution, and image filters. The product comes with a multitrack editor, which allows you to cut, copy, and paste media files onto the timeline without the need to import them. This is extremely useful when you want to create a video summary from several videos recorded with a video camera. For this purpose, the application allows you to change the source order, trim the videos, add transitions, and apply multiple effects to all of the audio and video files on the timeline.

Wirecast Pro allows you to easily capture and broadcast live sessions.

This feature comes in handy when you want to record Skype, WebEx, or Google Hangouts sessions, or when you simply need to video-record a presentation. It can also be used to record television content and much more. Additional features and bug fixes Telestream Wirecast Pro v7.1.0

includes many additional useful features, including import/export of different video and audio formats, multi-platform support, support for iChat AV, ability to take screenshots of the interface, and more.

Telestream Wirecast Pro v7.1.0 requires a high-spec computer to run, but the application is compatible with Windows XP, Windows Vista, Windows 7, Windows 8, Windows 8.1
