My teaching philosophy There is no one way to teach Photoshop, but I believe all the resources are available to help a student become a better designer. It's a matter of applying the resources and taking classes or practicing to learn and practice. One of the things I believe is that Photoshop is a tool for design and we should all be involved in

The main competitors of Photoshop Elements are GIMP and Photoshop. GIMP is a cross-platform open-source alternative to Adobe Photoshop. It has been around for a long time and is extremely popular among graphic designers and photographers. The other one is Photoshop which is an expensive software with features that rival most photo editing programs. Photoshop has no other competitor and it's the most widely used professional photo editing software in the world. If you are a professional Photoshop user, you should definitely consider switching from Photoshop to Photoshop Elements. A spate of fires sparked by thunderstorms scorched New York City neighborhoods Tuesday, damaging a Brooklyn bakery and a Chinese restaurant, filling a Manhattan street with flames and delaying the morning commute for hundreds of thousands of people as well as firefighters. Firefighters were also tackling a blaze that damaged a London grocery store that shares the same owner as a Long Island ice cream shop where a similar fire spread last month. (AP Photo/Richard Drew) Updated at 11:42 AM EDT on Saturday, Sep 9, 2011 A spate of firestorms that scorched New York City neighborhoods Tuesday, damaging a Brooklyn bakery and a Chinese restaurant, filling a Manhattan street with flames and delaying the morning commute for hundreds of thousands of people as well as firefighters, has one fire department ringing alarm bells. "We are sick of this crap," said Statewide District Capt. Michael Kort, spokesman for the New York State Fire Marshal's Office. "We are tired of getting calls about people throwing garbage into burning garbage cans." Flames were shooting from a bin in the corner of a Korean grocery at 1635 East Broadway in East Flatbush, Brooklyn. A NYC FDNY spokesman said the fire was "in process." At least two dozen vehicles from the FDNY were dispatched to that address and an officer was stationed there. The FDNY said the fire was in process at 1:45 PM. In Staten Island, a two-alarm fire was reported at the Staten Island Mall. Multiple calls from the mall to the fire department and multiple reports from firefighters were pouring into the TIPS hotline, but at the time the SI FDNY department did not respond to the 4 p.m. call. Tuesday's brush fires were separate from a large blaze on the same block in London, Ont., Canada, that blackened the roof of the same supermarket as the Brooklyn fire. Neighborhood resident Joshua Kane was driving into Manhattan from Brooklyn Tuesday and saw the "most beautiful thing I've ever seen in my life" – a burning trash bin on Nostrand Avenue by the Dominick's grocery store.
