What's new:

- FIFA 22.
- Career Mode: HyperMotion™ brings complete, high intensity gameplay to the FIFA World Cup™. A whole bunch of new and returning features for career mode are introduced to FIFA 22.
- Shot Speed, A new feature enhances the new “Speed Up” setting, which allows players to dodge and weave through onrushing opponents. Shot Speed is how fast the player is able to make a reactive, “Speed Up” defense - allowing them to evade balls heading their way. This adds to the goal-scoring movements between offense and defense, goalkeeper handling, and the speed with which players reach and re-direct balls into the goal frame.
- Player Dynamic Reality, Dynamic lighting, smoke, fog, and new props will transform the on-field presentation to match players’ teammates, the stadium, and match atmosphere. Players have an improved awareness of player load. As fatigue sets in, players now know the limits and how to use their bodies effectively. In addition, players will now be able to see the path of the ball with new ball path intelligence and more accurate trajectory controls when shooting.
- Dynamic Interactions, Create a better attacking/defending midfield by using the new tactics screen and players can now sprint, press the PT button to run faster or jump a bigger challenge, enter a slide tackle, or switch directions on the fly.
- High-Intensity Simulations, FIFA 22 will be the first soccer title to use new motion capture data collected from real-life players playing a complete match in an intensive 48-minute simulation. This data is used to improve live opponent behavior, interceptions, and ball trajectory.
- Highly Realistic Players, A more lifelike presentation of the team’s on-field players takes, at last, the lead pass, save, and shot animations out of a video game and into a world of play.

Every new season of FIFA offers dramatic changes to FIFA Ultimate Team™, FIFA Career Mode™ and FIFA Moments with the best FIFA players, clubs and stadiums from around the world as available in the latest official match ball – the Adidas PowerLite 2015 Official Match Ball. Major gameplay changes mean players and managers have to pick their moments to control the ball more carefully than ever before, while taking into account adjustments to the ball, the wind and every other variable to ensure that the ball is delivered in the right way at the right time. As you develop your career, you will take control of a player and manage his lifestyle, training methods, diet, vision, physical condition, performance and much more, making use of the authentic team sports medicine database containing over 18,000 scans. New Career Mode The epic football stories of the past are brought to life across the all-new Career Mode. From a player's first steps in a professional dressing room, to his rise through the ranks and a player's career at the top level. All-new Player Actions bring human drama to the main screen. Hitting a corner will feel different depending on whether it falls to the striker or to a defender. Players will always use their strength, skills and team-mates to get the most out of the ball. Players are driven to take big risks, be quick thinking and chase lost causes. Players can't take a slide tackle or flick the ball on for a one-two. Players can't throw the ball away when behind, or attempt to score from more than 50 yards. Throughout your career, your rivals will push you to succeed, while the media and fans will bear witness to all your hard work and perseverance. Quick Thinking If you don't have the ball, a clever opponent will take it from you. Human players can score from crosses in front of goal, or from rebounds or through-balls delivered from teammates at angles, distances or times that you might not have expected. When players lose possession, they run out of options. If they run too far, they can be caught with a man-on-man tackle. If they stay close, they are leaving themselves open to a counter attack. If they can't see, they are leaving a teammate to make a risky play. You need to be clever, you need to deliver the ball just before your opponent needs
